

The Flying, Fighting Weathermen Of PATWING Four

Hello NWSA,

Since your members are getting together for a reunion soon, perhaps you'd like to announce to them that the book "The Flying, Fighting Weathermen of Patrol Wing Four" by Paul E. Carrigan is about to be released. ALC Press and the 8 Carrigan family would like to offer your members a free copy of the book in PDF (electronic) form. Some of your members already have a paper copy of the manuscript they obtained from Ralph Carrigan, Paul's brother. The book has had months of editing, pruning, fact-checking, photos, maps, and Table of Contents and Index added.

A memoir of the war in the Aleutian Islands during WWII.
U.S. Navy Aerographer's Mate Paul E. Carrigan

Your members just need to send me an email stating that they are an NWSA member and we will email them a copy when it's available. Placing NWSA in the Subject line will help. My email address: ed@alcpres.com The book has bonus material on our website that is accessible now though it's still being worked on. The page "Weather Basics" is pretty raw now but will be worked on soon. The page that lists the names of people who are mentioned in the book is meant to have links to additional information about the person but we have only a small percentage of names with links. Perhaps your members can help with this

Our website: <http://alcpres.com/carrigan/>

Thank you,
Ed Sawicki
ALC Press